Mr. and Mrs. William Barr of East Cabot are visiting at the home of Mrs. William Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Richmond left today for Orange Park, Florida, where they will remain for the rest of the winter months.

Horace Smith, who had the misfortune of losing a finger on his right hand, about a week ago while working in the woods is slowly improving.

Mrs. C. C. Baldwin of Barton who has been spending the past two weeks with her mother has gone to New York and Boston for a few weeks with friends and relatives.

C. A. Edgerton, cashier of the Northfield national bank, gave a half hour talk before the student body at Norwich university Wednesday after chapel, on Currency. Mr. Edgerton in his remarks touched lightly on some bills now before Congress regarding the currency laws.

A very pleasing entertainment under the auspices of the students of the Northfield high school took place last night in Guild hall. A lecture on the Panama canal, by Sweeney and illustrated by Col. A. C. Brown. Everybody expressed themselves as being highly pleased. There was not a very large house because of the stormy weather.

Major and Mrs. Henry W. Hovey arrived from Spokane, Wash. Tuesday evening on the six o'clock train. Major Hovey, formerly commandant at Norwich university, was detailed to the Philippines in August of 1907, where he has been until recently retired because of his health. They returned by the way of China and Japan. At present his plans for the future are undecided but he says that Vermont looks mighty good to him just now.

NORWICH UNIVERSITY

Complete Battery Equipment Received from the Government.

President Spooner is in receipt of a communication from the war department requesting him to designate those students in the university desiring to take examinations leading to lieutenantcy in the army, examination to occur July 1, 1908 and January 2, 1909. This period has been until recently retired because of his health. They returned by the way of China and Japan. At present his plans for the future are undecided but he says that Vermont looks mighty good to him just now.

Lieutenant Chapman has at hand a letter from General H. H. Brandt, director of the Philippine constabulary, offering appointments to the grade of third lieutenant in the Philippine constabulary, to graduates of the university in the past two classes, or the present senior class, which will be graduated in June, no mental examinations being required. The salary for these positions is $1,100 and an allowance for quarters. All transportation expenses from place of appointment to Manila will be borne by the United States government, and half-pay will be received from day of appointment until its arrival in Manila, when full pay begins; the other half of pay for their period being retained until the officer has rendered two years' service. Men accepting these appointments must remain in the constabulary at least two years.

Complete Battery Equipment.

The university at the Vermont Field Artillery has received a complete battery equipment from the United States government. This consists of four modern three-inch field guns, eight caissons, one battery wagon, one field forage and one store wagon, making 14 four-wheeled carriages.

The equipment also includes saddles, the harnesses for 84 horses; 20 saddles and cavalry equipment for non-commissioned officers; full field equipment for 120 men, and spare parts for the maintenance of the entire equipment. The cavalry equipment also includes 120 revolvers, bolts and holsters.

This outfit is secured without cost to the university or the state of Vermont, even transportation being provided by the government. Some idea may be gained of the extent of their equipment from the fact that five cars and one box car were required in its delivery.

CABOT

G. F. Harvey of Philadelphia is at his farm for a few days.

Perry Terrill of New York, who has been stopping at the Harvey farm for the past four months for his health, is now staying at the Winouski house.

8,125,716 Rheumatics in United States

Can All Be Cured by Uric-O.

If rheumatism continues to spread as it has in the past few years, it would seem as though we would before long become a nation of cripples. The terrible destructiveness of this disease is apparent on every side of us. Almost nine out of ten of the cripples one meets have their affliction brought on by rheumatism. How many thousands more there are that are hopelessly bed-ridden and whom we never see. Rheumatism, from the very nature of the disease, can never cure itself, and if neglected is bound to grow worse rather than better. If you ever have any twinges of rheumatism, go to your druggist and get a bottle of Uric-O, the wonderful new rheumatic specific. It will cure you and it is the only treatment in the world that will cure you permanently and thoroughly. Uric-O cures by its direct action on the muscles, blood and kidneys. It sweeps out the poisonous uric acid and drives it from the system and it is only a treatment of such a nature that will ever cure rheumatism. Liniments and plasters only serve to drive it from one spot to another. They never cure rheumatism, because it is primarily a blood disease, and until the blood is cleared from the poison, a cure cannot take place.

You can test Uric-O free of charge if you wish. Just cut out this advertisement and send it to the Smith Drug company, 166 Smith building, Syracuse, N. Y., together with your name and the name of your druggist. They will give you an order on him for a 75-cent bottle free, which you can test and try to your own satisfaction.

Uric-O is sold and personally recommended in Barre by Red Cross pharmacy, or Rickert & Wells.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

McAULIFFE PLAYERS

MAKE BID FOR FAVOR.

A Comedy Drama The Play in Which Theatrics Make Good.

The McAuliffe Stock Co. appeared in the opera house last evening before a good sized audience in the comedy drama entitled "Outcasts of Society."

The company is a well balanced organization, and Jere McAuliffe in the role of Doolittle of Maine deserves special mention, and the work of Miss Ellen Gaudin, Miss Perry, Miss Sage and Miss Eldridge, also merits praise.

Limited space prevents an extensive notice in today's issue, but as more worthy consideration will be given the company. The play announced for tonight is "The Well Melodrama 'Why Women Sin.' There will be a family matinee Saturday afternoon and on Saturday night the company will close their week's stay with the Pitfalls of New York."

A Famous Cornetist.

It will be interesting to the musical people of our city to know that Marie McNeil who is one of the features of the Fenberg Stock Co., who commence a week's engagement at the Barre opera house on next Monday is looked upon as one of the greatest of lady cornetists in the world today. Miss McNeil has been the leader of playing with Gilmore, Sousa and Franchelli, and their brilliant soloist exhibited his orchestra at the St. Louis exposition.

CHELSEA.

Mrs. Gertrude B. Sprague received on Wednesday the news of the death of her uncle, Alfred W. Lane of South Barre.

Miss Lora Hood, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John D. Lane of Boston, for two weeks, returned Tuesday evening.

Charles Adams and Everett Edson of Randolph Center were in town Tuesday and Wednesday and were guests of Leonard H. Bacon.

Miss Florence Goodwin closed a most successful term of school and year of teaching in the Walter H. Emery district Friday, Jan. 17.

Erasmus Bugbee, who fell last week and broke his hip, developed a case of pneumonia early this week, which will he died Tuesday evening.

E. L. Rennie has returned from a week's visit to his home near Plattsburgh, N. Y., and will work for E. D. Barnes in the bolshoi shop.

Miss Cecelia Alger, who has been spending several weeks with relatives in different sections of the state, has returned to her work for Mrs. B. H. Adams, Jr.

Austin L. Skinner, who has been having an attack of the grippe and was recovering, was seized Wednesday morning with a serious relapse of the heart, which renders him in a very feeble condition.

The masquerade promenade held at the town hall Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Chelsea brass band, was a decided success socially and financially. There were about sixty persons who masked.

Henry Andrews of Keeseville, N. Y., is spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. David Sawyer, who lives just over the line in Vershire. Mr. Andrews is a grandson of John Proctor, one of the early settlers of Burlington, who was a drum major in the Revolutionary war and who died at the age of 109 years. Mr. Andrews, now in his 87th year, reads without the aid of glasses, plays the violin with the agility of youth, and enjoys good health and life in general.

EARTHQUAKE CAUSES A PANIC IN CALABRIA.

People Call Loudly to the Saints for Protection.

Reggio di Calabria, Jan. 24.—A strong earthquake shook this province yesterday. The inhabitants, recalling the devastation wrought by the earthquake of last October, were thrown into a condition of frenzied panic.

Up to the present time an report of loss of life has been received. The shocks were particularly severe at the villages of Bianco, Brancaleone, Bruzzano, and Ferruzzano. Screaming and terrified, the people rushed from their houses to the open fields or took refuge in the nearby subterranean grottoes.

A repetition of the shock is feared at any moment, and the people are calling on the saints for protection.

Wing's Adaptation From the French, In Use In Alfalfa Sod.

Four years ago, when first I went to study French farming, their plows made me smile, they looked so crude, with their immense wheels and beams, so awkward in design, says Joseph E. Wing in the Breeder's Gazette, Chicago.

This year I spent more time in France and studied their plows more carefully and at work. I now consider the French plow, with its two wheels, its rigid beam and all, as being a wonderfully effective tool and think it does its work easily for the horses as well. I took hold of the handles of these plows and found that they ran with extraordinary steadiness.

Last fall we had sixty acres of alfalfa sod to plow, and alfalfa sod is notoriously hard stuff to manage. It takes a good plow, a good team and a good plowman to plow alfalfa sod at all. We learned that a walking plow is best for alfalfa sod. We really never had much success with a riding plow in such use, but we had learned that a wheel under the beam steered the plow and was quite a help. The
